

Howard R. Champion, LRCP, MRCS, DMCC, FRCS

Dr. Champion is currently Professor of Surgery and Senior Advisor in Trauma at the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences (USUHS). He is also Professor of Military and Emergency Medicine at USUHS; Senior Scientific Advisor in the Office of Naval Research (ONR) at the US Navy and Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA); President/CEO of SimQuest, LLC; and President of Tech Med, Inc. Dr. Champion's previous appointments include positions as Research Professor at the University of Maryland, Chief of the Division of Surgery for Trauma at USUHS, and Senior Attending Surgeon at Washington Hospital Center. He earned his BS from Cotton College (1962) and his MD from Leeds University Medical School (1967).

Dr. Champion is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, the American College of Surgeons, the American Association for the Surgery of Trauma, and the Royal Society of Medicine. He is a Diplomate of the Medical Care of Catastrophes, Worshipful Society of Apothecaries. He has provided consultation on trauma systems in Australasia and many European countries. Eponymous lectures include the Mitchiner Lecture from the Royal Defense Medical College of the United Kingdom (2002) and the Zeppa Lecture at the University of Miami and Army Joint Trauma Training Center (2003). Dr. Champion was also awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award from the US Army Medical Research and Material Command and the Combat Casualty Care Research Award for Excellence (2005). He has authored over 400 publications.